

KNUCKLEHEAD PUMPKINS

Knucklehead pumpkins are bright to deep orange in color and are covered in varying amounts of warts, scabs or bumps. As the pumpkins mature the skin and warts will change from a dark green to completely orange although some warts may remain green. knuckleheads have a hard, vertically ridged, thick rind and have many culinary uses as well as decorative.